Room to grow, 6/8

By The Denver Post Staff

WEB RETAILER OFFERS $1 PROMOTION:

PeakUniques.com is a Colorado-based online store for people who prefer to buy products from independent businesses. The site boasts stylish baby and maternity gear, yoga supplies, gifts and accessories. To celebrate its first birthday, all June orders will be shipped for $1. Room's pick: the "Chocolate Ice" diaper bag from JP Lizzy Classic Totes for $94.

FLOORS THAT MAKE YOU THINK:

The Canadian company Puzzle Floor hatched a fun and simple flooring solution. Its 13-square-inch puzzle-shaped wood tiles easily interlock and come with edging that enables Puzzle Floor orders to fit within a hundredth of a millimeter. The tiles come in 13 different finishes, and for even more fun, they can be customized by having a favorite image, logo or slogan engraved into the wood. Find out more at puzzlefloor.com or call 800-750-5563.

perfectionists would be hard-pressed to find a broader range of buy-and-build outdoor structures - from garden sheds and gazebos to garages and playhouses - than those offered by Summerwood Products. The array of shed styles, for instance, include the mini-barn-looking Pioneer (base price $6,694), or the California vineyard-inspired Sonoma (base price $2,465). Door, window and shutter options allow shoppers to customize their choice. Kits can be pre-assembled, but the Summerwood website is rife with do-it-yourself tips and tricks. Visit summerwood.com for more information, or request a catalog by calling 866-519-4634.
